SATURDAY, MARCH 3

BEDFORD HILLS LIVE FARM MARKET

November -May, Saturdays 10-2. Our farm market is seasonal and held at the historic train station. Perhaps our most popular project to date, we transformed the historic (and up to that point, unused) Bedford Hills train station into a bustling indoor winter farmers' market and craft fair. Bedford Hills LIVE conceived and initiated this idea of a 'pop-up market' as a way to revitalize our hamlet by attracting more people to shop and enjoy our downtown area. Now in its second smash year, our Saturday 10am-2pm market runs from November-May and features local Hudson Valley producers selling a variety of winter veggies and local produce, meats, cheeses, fish and other artisanal products. Exciting vendors every week

BEDFORD CHAMBER CONCERTS

2017-2018 Concert Schedule

October sees the start of the first of seven exciting concerts in our 2017-2018 season, which runs through May. Four of the concerts are devoted to masterpieces by a single great composer—Schubert (October), Mozart (November), Bach (December), and Beethoven (May). The series also features the premier of a Trumpet Concerto by Music Director Anthony Newman, as well as his own chamber arrangements of Schubert's "Unfinished", Mozart's "Jupiter", and Beethoven's "Eroica" Symphonies. In addition, this season marks the reprise of audience favorites such as Bach's Brandenburg Concerti, Schubert's "Trout" Quintet, Beethoven's "Kreutzer" Sonata, and Brahms' Piano Quintet.

For the first time, we launch the Spring portion with two piano recitals by Internationally acclaimed piano virtuosos. The dual piano team of Misha and Cipa Dichter offer a February concert featuring Schubert's mournful Fantasia in F and Copland's Lively El Salon Mexico. And Vladimir Feltsman returns as guest artist for a March recital offering works by Bach and Brahms. All concerts begin at 8 PM. To buy tickets click here

March 21, VLADIMIR FELTSMAN (piano). Bach Partita No.1 in B-flat major BWV 825. Brahms, Op.118 & Op.119;
